The land in question is owned by Richard T. Wilson, of New York, and contains, according to the certificate of the Tax Assessor of the District of Columbia, 105.78 acres at Pencote Heights, in the suburb known as Congress Heights. The tax cer tificate of assessment shows that the land has been assessed at a valuation of $8,573, and the fundamental reason for the protest is that the bill which is to be introduced in Congress will provide for an ap-propriation of $245,000 for its purchase by the Government, a price which, the citizens' association declares, is about $200,000 excess of the true value of the land. For verification of this declaration, they cite an instance of a sale last summer of improved property within 200 yards of this tract, for which $2,300 was paid, and esclaim, proves that by the sale of the Wil-000, the United States would pay about How Foreign Countries Encourage the Merchant Marine.

Immense Sums Annually Paid Out for Carrying the Mails, as Well as for Premiums on Tonnage and Distance Traveled-France Pays a Bonus for the Construction of Ships

The State Department has issued an interesting document on the merchant marine of foreign countries. The reports were made by the United States Consuls at the request of Thomas W. Cridler, Third Assistant Secretary of State, who addressed letters to the consuls of the following foreign countries, June 20, 1899;

Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Gernany, Italy, Netherlands, United Kingdom, Dominion of Canada, Mexico, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Salvador, Antigua, Haiti, Marinique, Dutch West Indies, Chile, Ecuador, the Guianas, Paraguay, Uraguay, Cape Colony. Zanzibar, British India, Dutch India, Hongkong, Straits Settlements, Japan,

Them merchant marine of Belgium consists of 66 vessels, with a total measurement of 90,971 tons. Of this number of craft in existence on December 31, 1895, 62 of 90,629 tons belonged to the port of Antwerp, 1 of 169 tons to Louyain, 1 of 65 tons to Nieuport, and 2 of 113 tons to Ostende. The state also owns 12 steamers, 2 sailing vessels, and 1 auxiliary, most of which are employed in the postal and passenger service between Ostende and Dover. The report says nothing of bounties paid. The Danish merchant marine consisted, on March 1, 1899, of 3,170 sailing ve sels of a gross tonnage of 186,000 tons, and 505 steamers of a gross tonnage of 375,200 tons, against 3,199 sailing vessels of a gross tonnage of 276,800 tons on April 1, 1897. As to the condition of the rame, there are 7 sailing vessels over 190 years old, 1 dating from 1776, 2 from 1786, 2 from 1794, and 2 from 1796. There are about 160 sailing vessels fifty years old.
